If you are seeking the deep forest, this is a rewarding loop. The route offers deciduous trees and conifers, open meadows and varying elevations. This loop is a great "sampler." The route offers deciduous trees and conifers, open meadows and varying elevations. What makes these tree assemblages unique.

- 2 HOUR LOOP (1.25 miles)
  - Beginning at the Pavilion, across from the Visitor Center. The route passes through spruce trees from all over the world and meanders by the Wedding Meadow. It then plunges through the towering redwoods. The Redwood Trail is wide, or it is easy to move off-trail to allow for physical distance.
  - Trail is narrow. It is possible to move off-trail to allow for some physical distance.
  - Trail is narrow. Due to terrain, it is not possible to move off-trail to allow for physical distance.

- 1 HOUR LOOP (0.9 miles)
  - Beginning at the Pavilion, across from the Visitor Center. The route passes through spruce trees from all over the world and meanders by the Wedding Meadow. It then plunges through the towering redwoods. The Redwood Trail is wide, or it is easy to move off-trail to allow for physical distance.
  - Trail is narrow. It is possible to move off-trail to allow for some physical distance.
  - Trail is narrow. Due to terrain, it is not possible to move off-trail to allow for physical distance.

- 30-MINUTE LOOP (0.5 miles)
  - Beginning at the Pavilion, across from the Visitor Center. The route passes through spruce trees from all over the world and meanders by the Wedding Meadow. It then plunges through the towering redwoods. The Redwood Trail is wide, or it is easy to move off-trail to allow for physical distance.
  - Trail is narrow. It is possible to move off-trail to allow for some physical distance.
  - Trail is narrow. Due to terrain, it is not possible to move off-trail to allow for physical distance.

For an enjoyable visit and to make the Arboretum a safe place for all visitors, plants, and wildlife, please follow these guidelines:

- Bikes, scooters, and skateboards must remain on roads.
- Dogs must always be on leash; pet waste must be removed immediately.
- The Arboretum is smoke and tobacco free; alcohol at permitted events only.
- To protect Hoyt's trees, no tree climbing, hammocks, or slacklines.
- No foraging; leave plants, animals, and other natural features for all visitors to enjoy.
- No fires, camping, or drones.